Webinar Report on "Management of Pandemic"

The Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA) Local Branch, Dharwad, in collaboration with the Department of Political Science, Mahasatee Arts, Commerce & Science College, Ulga, Karwar, organized a prelude webinar on "Management of Pandemic" on 28th October 2020. This webinar provided a platform for distinguished experts to share insights on the socio-economic and political implications of pandemics, along with effective management strategies.

Resource Persons

1. Prof. S. R. Keshav, Professor of Economics at Bangalore University, Bengaluru, focused on the economic repercussions of the pandemic. His presentation highlighted:
  - The adverse effects of lockdowns on micro and macroeconomic structures.
  - The importance of fiscal stimulus and policy interventions for economic recovery.
  - Strategies to enhance resilience in supply chains and public health systems.
2. Prof. Sandeep Shastri, Pro-Vice-Chancellor, Jain University, Bengaluru, provided a political science perspective, addressing:
  - The role of governance and leadership in managing health crises.
  - Policy-making challenges and the need for collaborative federal structures.
  - Societal behavior and trust-building during public health emergencies.

Observations

Prof. S. M. Shivaprasad, Director of KSHEA, Dharwad, offered critical observations. He emphasized:

- The necessity of interdisciplinary approaches in pandemic management.
- Leveraging technology and innovation for real-time crisis response.
- Building community awareness and preparedness for future challenges.

Chairman's Remarks

Prof. S. S. Patagundi, Chairman of the IIPA Local Branch, Dharwad, presided over the webinar. In his concluding remarks, he appreciated the insights provided by the resource persons and stressed the importance of such academic discourses in shaping public policy and institutional readiness.

Highlights

- The webinar attracted a diverse audience, including academicians, students, and professionals from various disciplines.
- A Q&A session followed the presentations, where participants raised queries regarding economic support for marginalized communities and improving healthcare infrastructure.

Conclusion

The webinar was a significant step toward understanding the multifaceted challenges posed by pandemics. It underscored the importance of integrated strategies involving economics, governance, and community engagement to mitigate the impact of such crises.

This intellectually stimulating event succeeded in creating awareness and fostering dialogue on pandemic management, making it a valuable experience for all attendees.
