Report on One Day National Webinar

College is organized a one-day national webinar on "Management of Pandemic" on 28th October 2020. This webinar was aimed at addressing the economic, social, and administrative challenges posed by pandemics, with particular emphasis on the COVID-19 crisis. Two distinguished speakers, Professor S.R. Keshav, Professor of Economics from Bangalore University, Bengaluru, and Prof. Sandeep Shastri, Pro Vice-Chancellor at Jain University, Bengaluru, led the sessions.

- Professor S.R. Keshav: As a Professor of Economics at Bangalore University, Professor Keshav's expertise lies in economic policy and development. His presentation focused on the economic challenges created by pandemics, particularly COVID-19, and addressed topics such as unemployment, inflation, and economic stimulus.
 - He provided an overview of the economic disruptions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, such as the impact on GDP, inflation, and employment.
 - He discussed economic resilience strategies, including government stimulus measures, support for small and medium enterprises (SMEs), and policies to support affected industries.
 - Professor Keshav shared case studies of countries that implemented effective economic recovery plans during the pandemic and explored potential lessons for India.
- Prof. Sandeep Shastri: The Pro Vice-Chancellor at Jain University and an expert in political science, Prof. Shastri discussed administrative strategies, governance issues, and the role of public policy in managing pandemics. His talk also covered social responsibilities and community engagement.
 - Prof. Shastri addressed the administrative responses to the pandemic, focusing on coordination between central and state governments.
 - He emphasized the importance of data-driven decision-making, transparency in governance, and community engagement in pandemic response.

- Prof. Shastri also discussed the role of educational institutions in spreading awareness and educating the public about preventative health measures and the significance of vaccination drives.

A total of 71 delegates participated in the webinar, including faculty members, students, research scholars, and representatives from various academic and healthcare institutions. The participants actively engaged in the Q&A sessions, contributing their perspectives on pandemic challenges and strategies for mitigation
